

September 4, 2025

For Immediate Release

For further information, contact: Mary Ellen McArdle
Junior Achievement of Central Upstate New York
maryellen.mcardle@ja.org

Six Business Leaders to be Inducted into the Rochester Business Hall of Fame

Junior Achievement of Central Upstate New York and the Rochester Business Journal today announced the 2025 inductees for the Rochester Business Hall of Fame:

R. Carlos Carballada (posthumous award)

Former President and CEO, Central Trust Co.

Former President and CEO, First National Bank of Rochester

Former Commissioner, Deputy Mayor and Acting Mayor, City of Rochester

Marc C. Fiore

President, Mindex

Robert "Bob" Johnson (posthumous award), John Love and Greg Stahl

Founder, Bob Johnson Chevrolet

Owner, Bob Johnson Auto Group

Owner, Bob Johnson Auto Group

David J. Riedman

President & CEO, Riedman

Established in 2001, the Rochester Business Hall of Fame is presented annually by Junior Achievement and the Rochester Business Journal. Honorees are selected by the Hall of Fame Committee, which is advised by an independent group that includes past inductees.

The 2025 Rochester Business Hall of Fame induction dinner will take place on Monday, October 27, 2025, at the Joseph A. Floreano Rochester Riverside Convention Center beginning at 5:30 p.m.

Proceeds from ticket and sponsorship sales support Junior Achievement of Central Upstate New York, providing local JA students with financial literacy, entrepreneurial, work readiness and career awareness skills that are critical to future success.

For sponsorship or ticket information, contact Junior Achievement of Central Upstate New York, (585) 327-7400, email info.jacuny.org or visit cuny.ja.org.